

Enduring Loss

When someone we love dies, we can become very sad. Thinking about the resurrection hope and staying active in Jehovah's service can help us to be happy. Parents, read and discuss John 11:17-44 with your children. Then help your children cut out the pictures below, and consider what helped Sophia after her friend Elsa died.

